Workshop for Physician Health Committees of Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin and San Francisco Counties

When    Saturday morning, July 9, 2011, 9:00 am to 11:45 am

Where   Alameda Contra Costa Medical Association (ACCMA)
         6230 Claremont Avenue, Oakland, CA 94618

Program
9:00 am Welcome from Gary Nye, MD, Chair of the Physician’s Advisory Committee of ACCMA
9:10    Physician Health in California, David Pating, MD, Physician Well-Being Committee Chief, Kaiser Permanente San Francisco Medical Center
9:25    A Lawyer Looks at Committee Roles, Responsibilities and Functions
         Kimberly Ware, Esq., Principal, Ware Law Group, Emeryville
         Questions / Case Illustration
10:30   Break
10:45   How Wellness Activities Fit in the Spectrum of Physician Health Activities
         Dr. Nye
11:00   Identifying Resources, Sharing Information, Status Reports
         Dr. Pating
11:30   Next Steps Toward Developing a Regional Network:
         Topics And Questions To Be Covered In Future Meetings
11:45   Adjournment

Attendance is limited
CPPPH is offering this workshop to members of committees of hospital medical staffs, medical groups, specialty societies or county medical associations. Attendance is by invitation and is limited to committee members.

Advance registration
There is no fee, but advance reservation is required. For additional information or to reserve a place, send an email to Gail Jara at CPPPHInc@gmail.com. Reservations are by email only. You will receive a confirmation email.

Driving, Parking and Public Transportation
Driving directions and notes about parking will be sent with the confirmation email. The Rockridge BART station is about 5 blocks away from the ACCMA offices.

This is an activity of California Public Protection and Physician Health (CPPPH.) It is not a program of continuing medical education; no CME credit is offered.

For information about CPPPH, see www.CPPh.org.