

The EXCHANGE LEARNING (XL) Mentorship Program aims to help aspiring medical students become successful physicians through consistent guidance by experienced physicians.

EXCHANGE LEARNING
A PROGRAM OF CMA/EMOS

As an EMOS XL Physician Mentor, you will be paired with one or more compatible medical students in their first, second or third year of medical school. You will act as an advisor and will be responsible for staying in regular contact with your mentee(s) through phone calls, emails, and face-to-face interactions. You will be strongly encouraged to participate in online discussions using the XL Facebook page and LinkedIn site. The time commitment for participation varies on what you and your mentee(s) deem appropriate. We recommend you stay in contact at regular intervals, at least once every one or two months.

Application Deadline: February 1, 2012
